

ENGLISH 7

LENGTH OF TIME: 45 minutes daily

GRADE LEVEL: 7

DESCRIPTION OF COURSE:

This course develops the skills of informational, argumentative, and narrative writing, as well as the ability to develop evidence-based text and research. Writing is supported from sources so that students use evidence and respond to the ideas, events, facts, and arguments presented in the texts they read. Students focus on communication skills that enable critical listening and effective presentation of ideas. The 7th grade course requires a “step” of growth in these areas in complexity over the previous year.

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS:

What makes a story unforgettable?
What’s the big idea?
What’s your style?
Can you believe everything you read?

COURSE STANDARDS:

1.2 Reading Informational Text

Students read, understand, and respond to informational text—with an emphasis on comprehension, vocabulary acquisition, and making connections among ideas and between texts with focus on textual evidence.

1.2.7.A Determine two or more central ideas in a text and analyze their development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

1.2.7.B Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly, as well as inferences, conclusions, and/or generalizations drawn from the text.

1.2.7.C Analyze the interactions between individuals, events, and ideas in a text.

1.2.7.D Determine an author’s point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author distinguishes his or her position from that of others

1.2.7.E

Analyze the structure of the text through evaluation of the author’s use of graphics, charts, and the major sections of the text.

1.2.7.F Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in grade-level reading and content, including interpretation of figurative, connotative, and technical meanings.

1.2.7.G Compare and contrast a text to an audio, video, or multimedia version of the text, analyzing each medium's portrayal of the subject (e.g., how the delivery of a speech affects the impact of the words).

1.2.7.H Evaluate an author's argument, reasoning, and specific claims for the soundness of the argument and the relevance of the evidence.

1.2.7.I Analyze how two or more authors present and interpret facts on the same topic.

1.2.7.J Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

1.2.7.K Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade-level reading and content, choosing flexibility from a range of strategies and tools.

1.2.7.L Read and comprehend literary nonfiction and informational text on grade level, reading independently and proficiently.

1.3 Reading Literature

Students read and respond to works of literature—with an emphasis on comprehension, vocabulary acquisition, and making connections among ideas and between texts with a focus on textual evidence.

1.3.7.A Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

1.3.7.B Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly, as well as inferences, conclusions, and/or generalizations drawn from the text.

1.3.7.C Analyze how particular elements of a story or drama interact and how setting shapes the characters or plot.

1.3.7.D Analyze how an author develops and contrasts the points of view of different characters or narrators in a text.

1.3.7.E Analyze how the structure or form of a text contributes to its meaning

1.3.7.F Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in grade-level reading and content, including interpretation of figurative, connotative meanings.

1.3.7.G Compare and contrast a written story, drama, or poem to its audio, filmed, staged, or multimedia version, analyzing the effects of techniques unique to each medium (e.g., lighting, sound, color, or camera focus and angles in a film).

1.3.7.H Compare and contrast a fictional portrayal of a time, place, or character and a historical account of the same period as a means of understanding how authors of fiction use or alter history.

1.3.7.I Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade-level reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies and tools.

1.3.7.J Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

1.3.7.K Read and comprehend literary fiction on grade level, reading independently and proficiently.
