

Bucks County Right to Education Task Force

Thursday, March 26, 2020

7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

A free event for parents, caregivers and educators taking place at Bucks County Intermediate Unit, (Room C)
705 N. Shady Retreat Road, Doylestown, PA

The Bucks County Right to Education Local Task Force in collaboration with the Bucks County Intermediate Unit is pleased to present “Intelligent Lives”, a film by Dan Habib, which follows 3 young adults with intellectual disabilities as they navigate high school, college and employment. Please join us to see how people of all abilities can fully participate in higher education, meaningful employment and relationships.

After the film, we will host an interactive discussion, facilitated by Linda Carmona-Bell, co-chair of our local task force, and James Lill, Program and Training Specialist the Bucks County Intermediate Unit.

*Please invite all families, caregivers, educators and providers,

To register, please email Rachel Burkett at rburkett@bucksiu.org or call 215-348-2940 x1221.
